Dedication

Home is a beautiful word and should stir within us fond memories of security and love. The essence of home is the devotion of all who live in it and love it.

So we, the Senior Class of 1957, dedicate this, our '57 Bobcat, to our parents who through the years have proved to us that home is still the heart of living.

DIARY

Dear Diary,

Who said "all work and no play?" My head is spinning like a top - No foolin' - it's really work--- classes, tests, book reports, current events, rules to follow, and those eternal excuses--- woof!! But gee, Diary, I hope I make the grade all right. I'm beginning to understand why Seniors get all weepy when they talk about their last year.

ALMA MATER

Our strong band can ne'er be broken,
Formed in Blakely High,
Far surpassing wealth unspoken,
Sealed by friendship's tie.

High school life at best is passing,
Gliding swiftly by;
Let us pledge in word and deed,
Our love for Blakely High.

Blakely, Fairest, we shall give,
Loyalty and Praise,
Give our hearts devotion ever,
Through our high school days.

Class History

It was in September of 1944 that it all began--our great venture. Mrs. Freeman and Miss DuBose got us off on the right foot. We were bewildered and lost amid a world of giants, and it was at this time that we began to realize probably for the first time that there were other people in the world with whom we had to learn to live and whose rights we must respect.

By the second year, we had become a little more adjusted and were actually beginning to enjoy the friend-ships-many of which would last throughout our school days.

The elementary years swiftly followed--years of good times that we'll never forget. There were bad times, too. Remember when we played under the old "shell", and broke the windows with baseballs?

In September 1953 we had finally reached high school and ahead of us lay the four most important years of our lives. Never shall we forget those first class meetings, the money-raising projects, the excitement of our boys going out for football, electing our own cheerleaders, and having the privileges of joining clubs the first time. It was at this point that many of us enjoyed our first Junior-Senior Dance.

Our Sophomore year found us beginning to assume more responsibilities such as having assembly programs, helping more toward the smooth-running of class and club activities, and participating in the District Literary Meet. During this year some of our members were tapped by the Beta Club-an honor that we had coveted for a long time.

Our Junior year turned out to be a big one, and a year of hard work it really was. We started off with a bang by sponsoring the Halloween Carnival. Plans were made and carried out for a most successful Junior-Senior Banquet and Dance with a Hawaiian theme. This great social event turned out to be one of the best. As the year passed by, the day finally arrived when we could flash our class rings! Were we proud of them!!

Overnight it seems we became seniors. Just one year left--time was really running out! We started off the year with a successful magazine and pansy drive, and a barbecue. Many hours were spent working on our annual. Days and nights were filled with hard work lessons, class projects, and club activities. Our last high school football, basketball and baseball games were being played.

Finally came the last march down the aisle! Gone were the happy carefree days that we knew so well! "Within the halls of BHS the memory of those happy days will linger on." The halls are silent now, the last diploma has been given out, and the members of the class of '57 have gone out to seek their places in the world.

Class Prophecy

June 20, 1967

Dear Diary,

The Class of '57 have finally had their long awaited reunion. The only reason it was delayed so long was no one could get in touch with Ben Cooper. It seems Ben had turned explorer, and was so far in the African jungle he didn't even get our drum message.

Ben finally arrived so the ceremonies could get under way. The speaker of the day, Professor Thomas Peters, who is said to be another Einstein, is writhing with impatience It seems he lost an X&Y and wants to go home to look for it.

There seems to be a commotion in the back of the room. Oh, NO! Someone has talked Rossie Bell Nobles and Mary Love into doing their famous fan dance, without their fans!

As the group settles back down to normal (which isn't very good) we learn of the hilar--pardon me--historical work each member of our class had done or is doing.

Terrell Willis is posing for the "Before" ads for Charles Atlas.

Annette Love and Rouzelle Earnest have gained great fame as the world's bravest lion tamers.

Two of our former classmates are employed at Ciro's night club in Los Angeles. Calvin Loyless is head dishwasher and Edward Harper gets rid of all the customers who get stiff.

Dorothy Belisle has finally got her a Willis (car, that is.)

Betty and Sue Williams are the wealthy owners of a chain of lingerie shops. They do most of their own modeling, but their highest paid model is Barbara Loyless.

The girl known in the society circles of New York as "DYNAMITE" is known to us as Patricia Hobbs. She is here with her eighth husband.

Holt Stokes is a famous brain surgeon. His latest victim--I mean patient was Henrietta Wiley, but after he operated he couldn't find much to work with.

June Still has started her own nursery. All the children to enroll so far have Jones for a last name. Wonder Why?

Joan Puckett and Joan Mansfield arrived in their private jet planes. They must have had good flying instructors up in the clouds.

Billy Johnson is pitcher for the Brooklyn Dodgers. The bat boy is Thomas Perry.

Fate Alexander and Royce Smith are librarians of the State Library. Royce is in charge of keeping quiet and peace.

George Jones is Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. His secretary is Pauline Williams.

John Reid Stovall is our peace ambassador to Russia. His pal and confidential secretary is David Bush.

Myra White is running a school for handling husbands. Her assistant in charge of the wife handling department is Johnny Middleton.

Bob Spence is trying to find a drug to make his curly locks straight.

Larry Culpepper is a professional wrestler. His trainer is Ephaly Bowman.

Janette Jackson is president of the lonely hearts club in Georgia. Her vice President is Barney Brownlee.

Loretta Harris and Gayle Farris have become nurses of the two best families in the U.S. Both poodles they care for won first place in the national dog show.

Lewis Jones is being sued for damages to the Damascus road. His lawyer is Curtis Smith. We know the case will be a cinch with such a smart lawyer.

Arnold Johnson is model for a shoe factory. He certainly doesn't have to worry about his job. Who else has a size 14 1/2 foot?

Faye Tedder is still playing basketball. She is a member of the Old Maid's Home team. It seems like she has guarded herself too well.

Cynthia Cox is a Justice of the Peace in Tampa, Florida. It was the only way she could become involved in a certain wedding.

John Puckett is president and Priscilla Jones is vice-president of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Johnny Holman and Herman McDuffie are partners. They are the sole owners of a second hand harem. They reside in Egypt.

Edna Weeks is a fashion consultant for Sears Roebuck.

Billy Earl Lane is a designer for ready-to-wear for pets.

Arrie Lou Middleton is here in one of her latest creations, an olive green dress with hair dyed to match.

John Pritchett is mayor of Blakely. His secretary is Geraldine Peters.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1956-57, in the firm belief that we are mentally stable, bequeath to our less fortunate companions our most prized possessions in this, our Last Will and Teastment.

Article I

To the Faculty, we don't have too much to leave because we gave all we had, but a great big thank you for putting up with us.

Article II

To the Juniors some advice-work hard and make it to New York, also our best wishes.

Article III

To the Sophomores we leave our brains, or what's left of them.

Article IV

To the Freshmen we leave our undying class spirit that was kept glowing by the inspiring words of our Alma Mater: "Our strong band can never be broken formed at Blakely Hi!"

Article V

1--I, Fate Alexander, do leave my "long curly locks" to Price "Elvis" Pittman. His aren't quite long enough.

2--I, Dorothy Belisle, leave my ability to keep a tiny waist line to Willie Myrle White and Eloise Cannon.

3--I, Ephaly Bowman, leave my ability to become a senior to Walter Tiner. He seems to need a little push.

4--I, Barney Brownlee, leave to my dear brother, Mark Brownlee, my place in Miss Annette's room. Maybe he can fill it as well as I did.

5--I, David Bush, do leave my manly ways and never ceasing speaking ability to Joe Glass. He has the speaking ability, but he needs more manly ways.

6--I, Ben Cooper, do leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Brown to Bob Martin. It will come in handy!

7--I, Cynthia Cox, will my good nature and bubbling smile to Ginny V. Jenkins. It really makes life easier.

8--I, Larry Culpepper, do leave what's left of my size when this year is over to B.R. Brewer. Maybe with my size and his, cute girls won't be a problem.

9--I, Rouzelle Earnest, do will my quiet modest ways to Gloria Chapman. Think you can manage this, Gloria?

10-I, Gayle Farris, do leave my ability to love them and leave them to Rachel Alexander and Brenda Scarborough. At the rate they are going they will never catch up with me, though.

11-I, Edward Harper, am happy to leave my head-aches and aspirins to Jimmy Rice.

12-I, Loretta Harris, hate to leave this place in such a mess, but my best wishes to Ann Arnold, she shouldn't have any trouble setting things straight.

13-I, Patricia Hobbs, do leave my bubbling personality and friendly ways to Caroline "Moon" Whitehead. Surprised, "Moon"?

14-I, Johnny Holman, leave my love for blondes and brunettes to Jack Howell, You will have a hard time deciding which is best-this problem really had me "shook" for a while.

15-I, Janette Jackson, do leave a few of my boy friends to Peggy Grimsley. Do you need them, Peggy?

16-I, Arnold Johnson, do leave my willingness to help at any time to Wayne Tiner and James Bruner. It comes in handy-especially with the teachers.

17-I, George "Casey" Jones, leave my ability to talk to anybody, any time, any place-to Earl Glass.

18--I, Lewis Jones, leave my map to Damascus to Buddy Timmons. Heard he was getting interested.

19-I, Priscilla Jones, do will my love for brown curly hair and blue eyes to Duane Mellette. You can't beat that combination, Duane.

20-I, Billy Johnson, do leave my ability to play basketball to Billy McLain.

21-I, Billy Earl Lane, leave my polite ways and also my blond curls to Russell Nash.

22-I, Annette Love, leave my ability to get A in deportment every time to Patricia Weaver and Helen Ellis. Couldn't you use a little help, girls?

23-I, Mary Love, leave my ability to stay prim and trim to Patsy Williams.

24-I, Barbara Loyless, leave my ability to make Mrs. Brown's bulletin boards to Glennean Maddox and Sandra Willis. It really helps!

25-I, Calvin Loyless, will my ability to "hold that line" to Sammy Owens.

26-I, Joan Mansfield, will my industrious way and jet-propelled interests to Carole Tiner. She seems to have what it takes!

27-I, Herman McDuffie, will my love for brunettes and my ability to hit hard in football to Woodrow Houston. He has the right ideas already.

28-I, Auline McKnight, leave the sweat of writing the "Class Prophecy" to Barbara Ann White.

29-I, Arrie Lou Middleton, leave my friendly ways and ability to become a senior to Patricia Ferguson.

30-I, Johnny Middleton, will my ability to love only one girl to Shelly Goocher. What about it, Shelly?

31-I, Rossie Bell Nobles, leave my neat appearance and quiet manner to Loyce Alexander.

32-I, Thomas Perry, leave my interest in Ag to Charles English. Can you use this, Charles?

33-I, Geraldine Peters, leave my good "book sense" to Annelle King. It comes in handy, gal!

34-I, Thomas Peters, will my love for short girls (ex. Hen) to Junior Lawson. He has one of his own, I think.

35-I, John Pritchett, leave my love for out of town girls and my ability to kick a football to Jimmy Geroge.

36-I, Joan Puckett, leave my love for the University of Georgia to Alice Hammack. She seems to have gotten on the wrong track somewhere along the Auburn line.

37-I, John Puckett, leave my office as president of the Hi-Y to Joel Hodges. May he uphold the pledge just as I have.

38-I, Curtis Smith, hereby leave all of my sympathy and my clear clean mind to Lamar Jordan.

39-I, Royce Smith, leave all I have left at this school, especially my place in Miss Annette's room to Jimmy Chambers.

40-I, Bob Spence, leave my quiet ways and brown curls to Walter Todd.

41-I, June Still, leave my love for a certain Jones family to Joyce McKenny. I think my interests will be safe with Joyce.

42-I, Holt Stokes, leave my place in Cedar Springs to Barbara Oney White. Still interested, Barbara?

43-I, John Reid Stovall, took someone's advice and got myself a "woman", so I leave to Bobby McLendon the same advice, and, son, time's awasting.

44-I, Faye Tedder, leave to Linda Chambers my ability to play basketball and the wonderful feeling of being on the first six.

45-I, Edna Weeks, leave my ability to keep out of trouble to Barbara Bates. This talent really comes in handy!

46-I, Henrietta Wiley, leave my ability to get my thumb in the wrong place at the wrong time to Bobbie Jeanine White. It gets some attention.

47-I, Betty Williams, leave my who's-who title of "cutest" to Joy Hargrove and Emylee Houston to fight over. Keep the fight clean girls.

48-I, Pauline Williams, leave my determination to get what I want to Sybil Brown.

49-I, Sue Williams, leave my brains or what's left of them to Sylvia Jarrett. I heard hers were kind of scattered.

50-I, Myra White, leave the joys of my present way of life to Glyndell Thompson and Harry Clifton. They seem to have the right idea already.

51-I, Terrell Willis, leave my title of "School Police Chief" to all to the Junior boys to fight over. No dirty stuff boys.
